OZ Minerals appoints new Non-Executive Director

Experienced company director, Dr Sarah Ryan will join OZ Minerals' Board of Directors on 17 May 2021.

OZ Minerals' Chairman, Rebecca McGrath, said Dr Ryan's significant experience in the industrial sector, innovation and transformation, as well as her international and domestic experience as a Non-Executive Director, adds to the existing Board skillset.

"Dr Ryan's skills will be valuable as OZ Minerals works towards its next phase of growth and the continued development of its high-quality organic growth pipeline. She complements this with over 30 years' international experience in the energy and resources industries across technical, operational and leadership roles," she said.

Dr Ryan is currently an independent non-executive company director for Woodside Petroleum, Aurizon, Viva Energy and the Future Battery Industries CRC. Her executive career includes 15 years with Schlumberger in various positions internationally across research, engineering, manufacturing, operations, marketing and senior management.

She was Chief Operating Officer for a private equity-backed company in the UK which successfully commercialised innovative oilfield technology, before she transitioned into investment management where she was responsible, as an equity analyst and later energy advisor, for natural resources investments worldwide, based in the USA.

Dr Ryan is a Fellow of the Academy of Technology and Engineering, where she is Deputy Chair of the Energy Forum. She is a member of Chief Executive Women, and the ASIC Corporate Governance Consultative Panel. Dr Ryan was previously a non-executive director of Aker Solutions ASA (Norway), Akastor ASA (Norway) and Central Petroleum.

This announcement is authorised for market release by OZ Minerals' Managing Director and CEO, Andrew Cole.
