Organisational Announcement - Chief Financial Officer resigns to take up Chief Executive role

OZ Minerals' Chief Financial Officer Luke Anderson will leave the company at the end of September to take up the role of Chief Executive Officer of Genesee & Wyoming Australia, the Australian operations for United States-based rail operator, Genesee & Wyoming Inc. which is listed on the NYSE.

OZ Minerals' Chief Executive Officer, Andrew Cole, congratulated Luke on his appointment and thanked him for his contribution to the company.

"This is an excellent, Adelaide-based opportunity for Luke and the role complements his previous experience as Chief Executive of US industrial minerals company, Unimin Corporation."

An executive search for a new Chief Financial Officer is underway.
